

ATLAS Multi Academy Trust

DISCIPLINARY POLICY FOR STAFF (Statutory)

Trust sub-committee: Standards Committee

Co-ordinator: Mrs M Chapman

Last Reviewed: New Trust Policy

Next Review: Autumn 2020

St Albans Girls' School : Beech Hyde Primary School and Nursery : Adeyfield School

Signed by:
Margaret Chapman
Executive Head Teacher

Signed by:
Rachael Kenningham
Chair of ATLAS Board of Directors

1.	Introduction The aims of this Disciplinary Policy are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • set out the standards of conduct expected of all staff • ensure consistent and fair treatment for all • ensure that any disciplinary matter is dealt with fairly and in a timely manner. The policy and procedure apply to all employees except for non-teaching employees within their probationary period who are regulated by the Trust's probationary policy. It does not form part of any employees' contract of employment and it may be amended at any time. This policy and procedure does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time. Where appropriate, actions taken by employees outside working hours may also fall within the scope of this policy.
2.	Disciplinary Rules It is accepted that to differentiate between misconduct and gross misconduct is difficult, therefore each case must be treated on its own merits. Since the examples are guidelines, discretion will have to be exercised by the Trust in categorising breaches of discipline, having regard to all the circumstances under which the breach of discipline occurred.
2.1	Examples of Misconduct The following non-exhaustive list provides examples of matters that will usually be regarded as misconduct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minor breaches of policies • Poor timekeeping • Work not of the required standard (where capability is not in question)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Disruptive behaviour • Time wasting • Refusal to follow instructions • Inappropriate or offensive behaviour for example foul or abusive language • Minor damage to, or unauthorised use of, school property/facilities • Negligence in the performance of duties
2.2	Examples of Gross Misconduct Gross misconduct is a more serious act of behaviour that irreparably undermines the implied duty of mutual trust and confidence with the school or prejudices its reputation or business. The following non-exhaustive list provides examples of matters that will usually be regarded as gross misconduct:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Theft or fraud • Falsification of any school records • Violent or threatening behaviour • Serious damage or misuse of Trust property/premises • Wilful or persistent refusal to carry out a management instruction or any act of serious insubordination • Criminal offences or conduct, including those committed outside the workplace, which impact on the employee's ability or suitability to do his or her job • Serious failure to follow child protection procedures • Gross negligence • Dishonesty involving anything that relates to life in a school • Covertly recording hearings, meetings or colleagues • Harassment, bullying or discrimination against any other person • Unauthorised absence from the workplace • Serious breach of trust and confidence • Serious breach of health and safety procedures or regulations • Smoking on Trust premises • Being under the influence of alcohol or drugs on Trust premises or at a Trust event • Failure to maintain appropriate professional boundaries with any pupil • Behaviour prejudicial to the good name or interests of the Trust schools or which may bring the Trust into disrepute • Breach of confidentiality or failure to ensure that confidential information is kept secure • Inappropriate use of the Trust's information technology including email or internet abuse or and accessing sites containing pornographic, offensive or obscene material • Inappropriate use of social media
3.	Safeguarding and Child Protection Allegations If the allegation is that the employee has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • behaved in a way that has, or may have, harmed a child • possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child • behaved towards a child in a way that indicates that he/she is unsuitable to work with children. The Trust will give reasonable consideration, before taking any action, to making a referral to the Local Authority Designated Officer and whether there is an obligation, statutory or otherwise, to make an appropriate disclosure to any relevant bodies. The 'harm test' may be met if a member of staff has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • behaved in a way that has, or may have, harmed a child • possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child or

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> behaved towards a child in a way that indicates that he/she is unsuitable to work with children should be dealt with in accordance with HSCB procedures
4.	Financial Irregularity
	The Academies Financial Handbook confirms Trusts must notify the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) of any instances of fraud, theft and/or irregularity exceeding £5,000 individually, or £5,000 cumulatively in an academy's financial year.
5.	Informal Process and management Advice
	It may be appropriate for minor conduct issues to be dealt with informally through management discussion rather than a formal process. Where improvement is required, Management Advice clarifying the expectations of the Trust may be issued. Expectations of the employee will be set out in writing and a copy will be given to the employee and placed on their personnel file. This informal management instruction does not constitute a formal warning but may be referred to as part of any further disciplinary proceedings. Formal steps will be taken under this policy if the matter is not resolved informally or an informal approach is not appropriate.
6.	Formal Process
	6.1 Suspension There may be instances where suspension with pay is necessary whilst investigations are carried out. Where possible, a meeting will be held with the employee at which the allegations and reasons for considering suspension will be discussed. The school will consider reasonable requests from an employee to be accompanied by a trade union official or work colleague where this does not unreasonably delay the process. The Trust will consider reasonable alternatives to suspension where they exist. If suspension is deemed necessary, then this does not imply that a decision about the veracity of the allegations has been made and the period of suspension will not be considered as disciplinary action. Suspension will be reviewed periodically to consider whether circumstances surrounding the suspension have changed. During suspension a named contact will be assigned to keep in touch with the employee. Where the employee is remanded in custody, the Trust will consider whether it is appropriate for the period of suspension to be unpaid.
	6.2 Investigation No disciplinary action or sanction will be applied until the allegations have been investigated. Unless otherwise impracticable, different individuals will carry out the investigation and disciplinary hearing. An investigation may consist of the gathering of evidence or an investigation interview with the employee or witnesses as the case requires. Investigation interviews are solely for the purpose of fact-finding and the employee will be informed at the outset that the meeting is an investigation interview.

		There is no statutory right for an employee to be accompanied at a formal investigatory meeting. The Trust will consider reasonable requests from an employee to be accompanied where they would be otherwise unable to reasonably participate otherwise. The companion is limited to those persons outlined in paragraph 6.5. The employee will be informed as soon as possible as to the conclusion of the investigation and its outcome. If the allegation is without foundation, no further formal action will be taken and the employee will be informed of this in writing.
6.3		Pre-Agreement It is perfectly acceptable for an agreement to be arrived at prior to the hearing between both parties in circumstances where the facts are not in dispute and both parties agree on the sanction. A formal meeting should be held to discuss the key findings of the investigation and issue the pre-agreed sanction. An employee will be given the right of appeal against any pre-agreed sanction. This approach will not apply where the allegation concerns the safeguarding and protection of children, where the harm threshold has or may have been met or where allegations relate to criminal activity or fraud. It is not appropriate to dismiss an employee by means of pre-agreement. There will be a right to revert to the procedure outlined within this disciplinary at any point prior to the formal pre-agreement meeting taking place.
6.4		Invite to formal hearing If it is decided that there is a disciplinary case to answer the Trust will invite the employee to a formal disciplinary hearing. The employee will receive at least five working days' notice of the hearing in writing. Notification will include details of the allegations, possible consequences and sufficient information to enable the employee to answer the case at the formal hearing. This will include any evidence the employer proposes to use in the formal hearing.
6.5		Right to be accompanied The employee has the right to be accompanied and supported at a formal hearing by a trade union representative or work colleague. The employee should provide the name of their representative within 2 working days of the hearing. Where the chosen companion is unavailable on the day scheduled for the hearing, the employee may request that the hearing be rescheduled to an alternative time that is reasonable and within 5 working days of the scheduled date. If the employee is unable to attend a hearing within 5 working days the hearing may take place in a timeframe at the Trust's discretion. If the representative remains unavailable, the employee may be asked to choose another representative.

		During the hearing the companion may address the hearing to put the employee's case forward and confer with the employee however they may not answer questions on the employee's behalf or address the hearing if the employee indicates they do not wish this.
	6.6	Disciplinary panel The individual responsible for the disciplinary investigation will not be a member of the panel. Where dismissal is not a possibility a panel may reasonably consist of one appropriate individual. Where dismissal is a possible outcome, a panel of three appropriate individuals will normally hear the case. Where this is impracticable, or would cause unreasonable delays, a panel of two individuals may hear the allegations.
	6.7	Formal hearing The employee (and their companion) must make every effort to attend the hearing. If the employee fails to attend the hearing without good reason, or is persistently unavailable, the Trust may make a decision in their absence based on the evidence available. A Human Resources advisor may attend the disciplinary panel to provide professional support and advice to the panel. This advisor will not be a decision maker in this process. A note taker may be present at the hearing. They will make a record of the hearing, but not of the confidential deliberations of the panel. The employee will receive a copy of these notes with the formal outcome letter unless otherwise impracticable. The Trust does not allow the audio recording of disciplinary hearings unless there are pre-agreed exceptional circumstances. Covert recording is considered gross misconduct. At the hearing the employee will be entitled to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a full explanation of the case against them • set out their case and respond to any allegations • ask questions, present evidence and call relevant witnesses • raise points about any information provided by witnesses. • Any witness to be called at a hearing must have submitted a written statement of their knowledge of the case at least 3 working days in advance of the hearing. These statements will be shared with the all relevant parties without delay. • The Disciplinary Panel may adjourn the hearing if it is necessary to do so. The employee will be informed of the likely period of any adjournment. • The panel will convey the decision to the employee, in writing, within 7 calendar days or as soon as is reasonably practicable. The employee will be notified of their right of appeal under this policy.
7.	Disciplinary Action
	7.1	First written warning Where misconduct has occurred and informal discussions have not led to sufficient improvement or are not considered appropriate, a formal written warning may be issued. A written warning will remain active for a period of 12 months, unless the employee is notified to the contrary, and will be recorded on the employee's personnel file.

	After the expiry of the warning period, the warning will remain permanently on the personnel file but will be disregarded in deciding the outcome of future disciplinary proceedings. The employee will need to be at work throughout the relevant warning period. If they should be absent from work for any reason the school reserves the right to extend the period of warning at their discretion.
7.2	Final written warning If an employee's misconduct is sufficiently serious, or if there are existing live warnings, it may be appropriate to move directly to a final written warning. A final written warning will normally remain active for a period of 12 months or in exceptional circumstances up to 24 months. After the expiry of the warning period the warning will remain permanently on the personnel file but will be disregarded in deciding the outcome of future disciplinary proceedings. The employee will need to be at work throughout the relevant warning period. If they should be absent from work for any reason the school reserves the right to extend the period of warning at their discretion.
7.3	Dismissal (including summary dismissal for gross misconduct) Where the employee has committed further acts of misconduct during the life of a final written warning the Trust may elect to dismiss with notice or payment in lieu of notice. Where the employee has committed an act of gross misconduct, the employee may be summarily dismissed without notice, regardless of whether there are live previous warnings on file. Where the allegations relate to safeguarding or child protection issues the school will consider whether it is appropriate to make a referral to the DBS. If a Teacher is summarily dismissed the Trust will make a referral to the Teaching Regulation Agency.
8.	Right to Appeal Employees have the right of appeal against any disciplinary sanction given at any stage of the formal process. Any employee who wishes to appeal a sanction should do so in writing within seven calendar days of the receipt of a decision letter to the person named in the letter. The employee's letter to lodge the appeal should include the grounds for appeal i.e. breach of procedure, severity of disciplinary penalty, against the fact or all of the above reasons. If the employee is appealing against dismissal, the date on which dismissal takes effect will not be delayed pending the outcome of the appeal. However, if the appeal is successful the employee will be reinstated with no loss of continuity of service or pay or any other detriment
9.	Appeal Process The appeal hearing will take place as soon as is reasonably practicable and without unreasonable delay.

	Wherever possible the appeal will be heard by an appropriate individual, or panel of individuals, who have not been involved in the decision to impose a disciplinary sanction. At the discretion of the Trust the appeal may be a complete re-hearing of the matter or it may be a review of the fairness of the original decision. New evidence will only be considered if relevant and there is a good reason why this had not been included as part of the original hearing. The decision of the appeal panel will be final. It will be confirmed to the employee, in writing, within seven calendar days or as soon as is reasonably practicable.
10.	Disciplinary action involving a trade union representative
	If the employee is an accredited trade union representative recognised by the Trust for collective bargaining purposes no action will be taken under this policy, save for of suspending the employee in a case of suspected gross misconduct, until the matter has been discussed (with the employee's consent) with a full time official of the relevant union. If consent is withheld the Trust may continue to apply its policy.

ATLAS Multi Academy Trust

Equality Impact Analysis

When reviewing all Trust policies, the following Equality Impact Analysis (EIA) should be undertaken to ensure fairness of the new proposals/policy and to identify any action needed to redress any potential discrimination, positively promoting equal opportunities, improved access and participation for all.

Title of Policy:	Disciplinary Policy and Procedures
Date:	Autumn 2019
EIA carried out by:	Mrs M Chapman
EIA reviewed by:	Standards Committee

1. Identify the aims and objectives of the policy, what will be the proposed change and how will it be implemented

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Policy contains information about: Overall aims and objectives? What is the proposed change? Who is intended to benefit from the proposal and in what way? Outcomes of the policy? How will it be put into practice and who is responsible for this? 	To identify procedures for disciplinary action if required in a fair and balanced manner to ensure clarity of rights and responsibilities of the school and employees
---	---

2. Assessment of Impact? To include impact of policy, any plans needed to mitigate any negative impact, equality issues to be addressed

Characteristic	Group	Effect/Impact
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Age Disability Gender reassignment Marriage/civil partnership Pregnancy/Maternity Race Religion or Belief Sex Sexual orientation 		No impact

3. Consultation

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> New policy contains information about: Policy audience, expected actions and outcomes Consultation and communication process Accessibility for all Fair access to the consultation process Lessons learnt from previous consultation, if appropriate 	Expectations, requirements and actions.
---	---

4. Decision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Should the new proposal/policy be agreed and any impacts identified following consultations? • What reasonable adjustments are required? 	No issues or adjustments required

5. Action Planning
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any actions identified to address inequality for different groups? • Any actions identified to promote equality and diversity? • Where are these actions recorded and who is responsible for them? 	None

6. Monitoring and Review
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When will the impact assessment be reviewed? • Who is responsible? 	Autumn 2020, in line with policy Margaret Chapman, Executive Head Teacher

7. Publication of the results of the impact assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Results of EIA are published – where and when? • The results are kept as a public record of the EIA – where and when? 	With the policy